

KASEY VAN NORMAN

PROFESSIONAL BIO

Kasey Van Norman is a bestselling author, licensed counselor and Bible teacher living in Bryan, Texas with her husband Justin and their two children, Emma Grace and Lake. Kasey has written 2 books & 2 Bible studies, Named by God & Raw Faith. Her next book, set to release in 2017, will help women understand, own, & share their life story—a journey known to Kasey through God’s radical redemption of her past abuse, addiction, & life-threatening cancer diagnosis.

Kasey teaches over 100,000 women each year as a headline speaker for Extraordinary Women, American Association of Christian Counselors, and as an ambassador with Compassion International. Kasey creates resources & spaces for women to know the truth, engage their story, and belong to one another.

The Van Norman family is currently in the developmental stage of Northway Farms—a grassroots effort to strengthen communities by offering employment & family to vulnerable women and children. Kasey is also a counselor for her local prison and a community leader with Declaration Church.

Kasey is a cancer survivor & has received degrees in; Psychology-B.A., Communication-B.A., Counseling-M.A. & LPC, & Biblical Studies-M.A. She also spends a lot of time at the baseball field with her 1st grade son and google-ing the answers to her 5th grade daughter’s homework.
