

KASEY VAN NORMAN

Professional Bio

Kasey Van Norman is a bestselling author, licensed counselor, and Bible teacher living in Bryan, Texas with her husband, Justin, and their two children, Emma Grace and Lake. Kasey has published 2 books & 2 Bible studies, Named by God & Raw Faith. Kasey teaches and writes about the love that redeemed her life from the shame of past abuse, addiction, infidelity, & the fear of a life-threatening cancer diagnosis.

Kasey teaches thousands of women each year as a ministry event speaker—a headliner with the Extraordinary Women Conferences, American Association of Christian Counselors, and as an ambassador with Compassion International.

Justin & Kasey Van Norman are founders & directors of Northway Farms—a non-profit farming enterprise offering employment, housing, & community to homeless women & children living in the Brazos Valley. Kasey also serves her county’s prison (one of the largest in Texas), as a re-entry counselor for women who have been incarcerated. The Van Normans are devoted members of Faith Bible Church in Bryan, where Kasey serves as one of the women’s Bible study teachers.

Kasey is a cancer survivor (Non-Hodgkins Lymphoma). She has received degrees in Psychology, Communication, Counseling, & Biblical Studies. Kasey is a licensed professional counselor, as well as a licensed chemical dependency counselor. She also spends a lot of time at the baseball field with her 3rd grade son and google-ing the answers to her 7th grade daughter’s homework.
